

Fundraising Update – 29th November (AGM)

Disco

Absolutely incredible night, massive thanks to Neroli and Nikki for all the work that they put in, it had a profit of $4,200.

- Notes for next: continuing to find a way to get the line to go through faster?

Family Fun Night:

Profit – treasurers report, but approximately $7,600.

- Positive
  - Silent disco – reasonably cheap and was thoroughly enjoyed.
  - Silent Auction $4,395, massive thanks to Megan who had it run as smoothly as ever, also a thank you to the class reps who put in so much time and effort into the items.
  - Book Store
  - Amazing BBQ team
  - Entertainment items were great, even though we were unable to use inflatables.
- Notes for next year
  - No face painter – or potentially a couple of high-school students who are happy to do small designs quickly.
  - Book in counsellors earlier for chocolate throw
  - Silent auction reoccurring donations (bike & admin)
  - Lolly store – more candy necklaces, potentially no ice-creams just icy-poles.
  - Cheaper light source, review the need for 3 lights?
  - Only received $1700 worth of donations for items from an expected $2800 – budget will need to be adjusted next year to account for it.
  - Engage DODs to potentially run some games with the students – handballing tournament, paper aeroplane etc.
